Non-retaliation Policy:

The College and the Foundation will not retaliate against an employee who, in good faith, has made a protest or raised a complaint against some practice of the College or the Foundation, or of an employee of the College, or of another individual or entity with whom the College or the Foundation has a business relationship, on the basis of a reasonable belief that the practice is in violation of law, or a clear mandate or public policy.

The College and the Foundation will not retaliate against employees who disclose or threaten to disclose to a supervisor or a public body, any activity, policy, or practice of the College or the Foundation that the employee reasonable believes is in violation of a law, or a rule or regulation mandated pursuant to law or is in violation of a clear mandate or public policy concerning the health, safety, welfare, or protection of the environment.

Treatment of Complaints:

Upon receipt of a complaint, the Chairman of the College Board of Trustees or the President of the College Foundation, Inc. Board of Directors will determine the nature of the complaint. Complaints will then be reviewed under the direction and oversight by such person(s) as they determine appropriate. Confidentiality will be maintained to the
