

Beaufort County Community College offers adults an opportunity to complete their high school education through the General Educational Development (GED) Program. The program's purpose is to provide a second chance to adults who, for whatever reason, did not complete high school in the traditional manner. It is not intended as an alternative to the traditional high school for those students who cannot or refuse to complete a regular high school program. All persons interested in taking the examination must:

- Pay a testing fee of $25.00 in Bookkeeping Bldg. 1
- Report to Testing Center in Bldg. 8, Room 824 at 12:15 P.M., (Day Testing) 5:15 P.M. (Night Testing) with fee receipt.
- Provide two forms of identification (a NC Drivers License or NC DMV ID with picture AND a Social Security Card)
- Provide Parent/Guardian notarized petition if between sixteen and eighteen years of age.

Night testing will be available by appointment only Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday evenings (usually on the 2nd week of each month), Saturday testing will also be available by appointment (if needed).

To schedule testing contact Marion Porter at (252)940-6299 or Ron Clark 940-6264.
